

Do not lessen the Indiana Telephone privacy Law. I am retired and was unable to get more than an hour without being hassled by some telephone sales person. Since the Law was passed, I have been able to have a modicum of privacy and peace from the previous onslaught of phone vendors. We in Indiana appreciate the return of non-abuse at our home, thanks to the Telephone Privacy Law.